The image shows a mobile application interface for creating a profile. At the top, there is a dark navigation bar with various icons. Below this, the app's content area has a light pink background. The form consists of three text input fields: the first contains 'Roberto', the second contains '25', and the third contains 'roberto@gmail.com'. Below the inputs are two purple buttons: 'Guardar Perfil' (Save Profile) and 'Cargar Perfil' (Load Profile). Underneath the buttons is a section titled 'Resultado' (Result), which contains a white circular button with a black hamburger menu icon. The entire app interface is displayed within a black frame that mimics a smartphone.
